The Stars in Our Crown

The Senior Class of 1987 would like to thank the faculty for leading us through the last 12 years of school. Through the years, they have taught us many things; those things will never be forgotten, nor will they. They have put a Star in Our Crown , and we thank them.

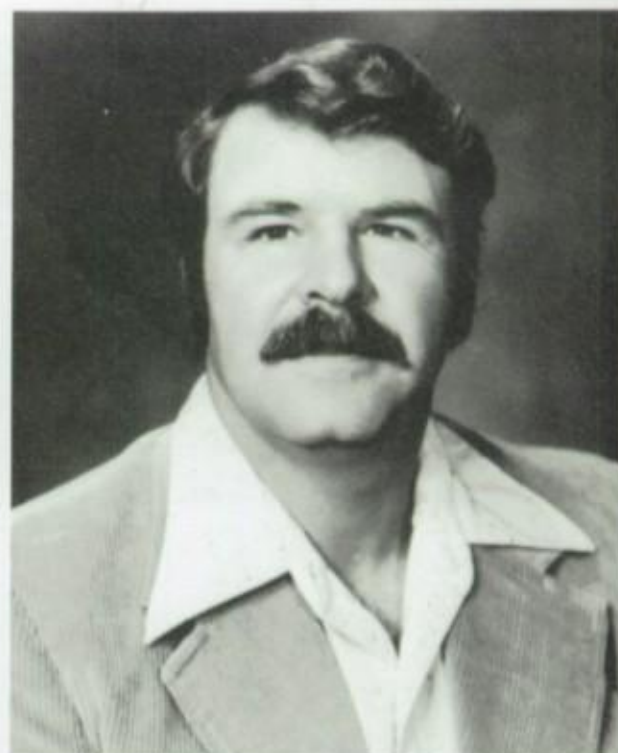

The Senior Class of 1987.

Superintendent and Principals

Yearbooks are compiled to capture memories of good times and good friends from the past year. During my tenure, I have gained my share of both here at Keyes High. As we strive to present a well-rounded education, the benefits keep growing and the memories just keep adding up.

*Mr. Dewey Holland
High School Principal*

The Keyes community has provided their school system with an outstanding physical plant, and we have a dedicated staff of professionals working to provide the best possible education for each student. One of our goals is that when each student leaves Keyes High School he or she will have an adequate foundation for their chosen college or career. I am proud to be associated with the Keyes School System.

Mr. John Montgomery Superintendent

Administration 3

I feel that I have been very fortunate in having been associated with Keyes students as a teacher for nearly forty years. Our students compare with the ones of the 50's in about every way. Most are hard working, fun-loving, well-disciplined, even though a bit mischievous. They have the same fears, gripes, hopes, and problems as their parents did, and I feel that 90% of them will become useful adults, and the other 10%-we, not they-have failed along the way. Again, I feel very lucky and thank you all.

Yearbook Staff

Producing the 1987 yearbook was a special challenge this year, as each page was designed and entered into a computer before being sent to the publisher. This procedure was quite an accomplishment. The yearbook staff hopes that the finished book is pleasing to you, and that the results of their hard work reflects Stars in Your Crown.

Kevin knows that the first step to preparing an annual page is a rough draft.

Damon says he hates typing, but he has done his share of typing on the yearbook.

Mrs. Rhoton is entering another page in the computer. Only 87 more and she will be finished.

Crazy things happened the week of homecoming. Top l. to r. Julie covered Jimmy's nose with shaving cream only to have it shot off with a water pistol. On the juniors' wall Donald Duck showed up sailing to victory. Mr. Holland did not participate in the bottle drinking contest — it only looks that way. First place for wall decorating went to the freshmen and their mouse. DeeAnn & Shan really looked the oriental part, and they won second in the Miss Mess contest. They were edged out of first by freshmen Angel and Weston. More shaving cream on the faces of Frank and Jody again expressed the fun that was had at the 1987 Homecoming festivities.

National Honor Society

National Honor Society members are Dana Arthaud, Jamie Bourk, Scott Arthaud, Tif Adams, Shan Hanes, Julie Warren, Steve Perky, and Janell Smalts.

Being elected to the National Honor Society, is more than just being a good student. It is true that candidates to the N.H.S. must have a cumulative scholastic average of at least 85 percent, or the equivalent standard of excellence for that school. They must be a member of the sophomore, junior, or senior class, and must have attended our school the equivalent of one semester. However, those candidates meeting these qualifications must then be evaluated on the basis of service, leadership, and character as set forth in the NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY HANDBOOK.

The Oklahoma Honor Society members, who are pictured below, received their honor by having grades in the top 10% of the Senior High School and top 10% of the Junior High School. This is an honor granted by the state of Oklahoma.

The past 3 years, Mrs. Rhoton has sponsored both honorary societies.

Oklahoma Honor Society

Oklahoma Honor Society members from the high school are Dana Arthaud, Janell Smalts, Tif Adams, Scott Arthaud, and Shan Hanes. From the junior high they are Leslie Hinds and Lelania Hanes.

Cheerleaders Create Excitement

... enthusiasm everywhere

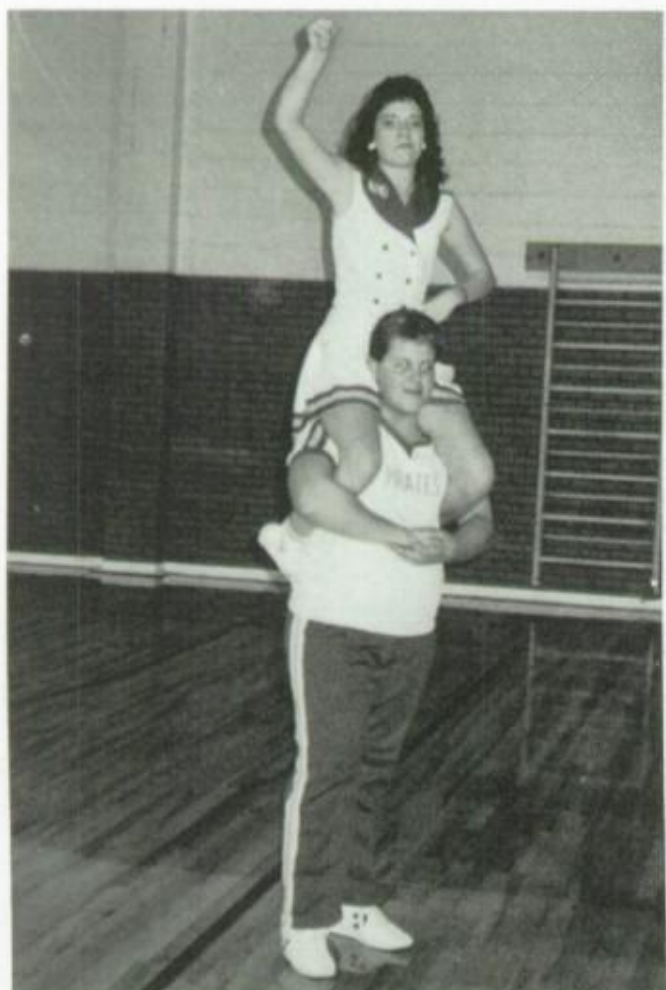

Julie Warren proves that cheerleaders will do just about anything to create spirit.

Time out as Jennifer Warren ties her shoes just before that all important routine.

My goodness, what happened to Jamie Bourk? Too much excitement I guess.

When Julie is on Richard Hutcheson's shoulders, she is high enough for everyone to see as she leads chants.

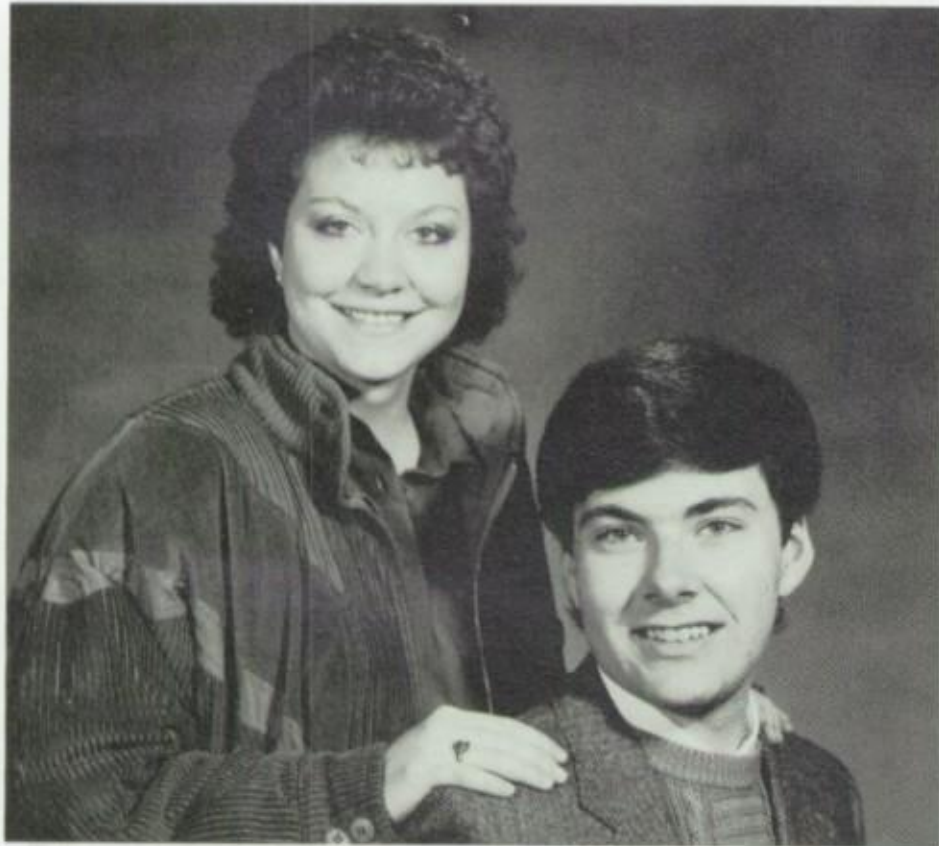

"Let's hear it!" is heard throughout the gym as Amy Strasner motivates the crowd to yell.

Eighth Grade Graduation

*. . . top graduates were Leslie Hinds Valedictorian
and Lelania Hanes Salutatorian

Receiving their rewards for the work they have done throughout many years of schooling are: Sarah Ortiz, Zack Shepherd, Lelania Hanes, Mario Gonzales, Stephanie Barnum, Helen Townsley, Laremy Zaring, and Leslie Hinds.

This graduation exercise is the last landing on their ladder as they reach for more Stars in Their Crowns — as they say in their motto: “The Best Is Yet To Come.”

Class colors: Royal Blue and Silver

Serving as honor guards for 8th grade graduation were Chris Townsley and Christy Dye.

High School Graduation

... lead by Valedictorian Dana Arthaud and Salutatorian Tiffany Adams.

Graduating in the Class of 1987 were some who just made it, and others who rank as high as 29 on the ACT score. Regardless of grades, we are proud of these seniors who graduated May 19, 1987. They are as pictured below: (seated) Dana Arthaud and Damon Groves. (Standing) Corey Schrepel, Shelly Daves, Matt Pugh, Tiffany Adams, and Mary McBride.

Julie Warren and Jamie Bourk served the seniors as honor guards.

Bird Book Winners

Amber Harriman, Kristin Wilkinson, Rusty Dye, Brandon Wood

Andrea Stewart, Tara Adams, Jason Minter, Amanda Stewart, Jesse Silva

All students in the top right picture received 1st place awards at the local level in their class. First grade Andrea Stewart, 5th grade Tara Adams, 2nd grade Jason Minter, 6th grade Amanda Stewart, and 3rd grade Jesse Silva. All these books were entered in state competition and Tara Adams won first in state.

At the local level, 1st graders Amber Harriman won 2nd place, Kristin Wilkinson won 3rd place, and Rusty Dye won honorable mention. Second grader Brandon Wood won 2nd place.

62 Local Spelling "B" winners in the junior division were 1st Shilo Crane, 2nd Chad Betts who also won 3rd in the county contest, and reserve Jeromy Witt.

Local Spelling "B" winners in the high school division were 1st Christy Dye, 2nd Lelanie Hanes who also won 2nd in the county contest and 3rd Helen Townsley.
